PLATINUM is a new collection of couture bridal gowns designed by Kenneth Pool, the newest member of the Priscilla of Boston design team who formerly designed for such houses as Vera Wang, Amsale and Reem Acra. Kenneth is one of my favorite bridal gown designers, he brings so many elements in to one design. He captures drama, elegance and passion all in one dress. When a bride walks down the aisle in one of his gowns, it's impossible for her not to be the center of attention.

The PLATINUM Collection is the embodiment of luxury, featuring sumptuous natural fabrics and elaborate, hand-finished details. For brides who prefer a more dramatic gown, this couture collection reflects the designer's signature style of glamour, opulence and romantic fantasy.

You can find Kenneth's newest gowns at The Wedding Salon of Manhasset.

Personal. Perfect. Unforgettable.

From the historic listed castle and designed gardens to the elegant rooms and meticulous, intuitive service, New York's finest wedding venue combines luxurious accommodations and a stunning setting, just an hour from Manhattan. This amazing estate and hotel, is the most romantic and perfect setting for a fairy tale wedding. Complete with lush grounds and breathtaking ballrooms, this venue is a hands down pick. I give this estate and hotel, five stars ★★★★★.

Let's Talk about Skin! When approaching skin care for an event or a wedding. Brides and women most of the time get it wrong. Facials should not be done the week of or the day before. The initial process should start at least six months before. I tell my clients, "treat this as if you were being photographed for the cover of Vogue". Your wedding is a once in a lifetime photo shoot and you want to get it right. I suggest getting facials at least every six weeks, one year before event. If your event is closer, your facial expert will come up with a treatment plan. Speaking of experts, there is only one person I trust when it come to skin care. When ever I need to walk the red carpet or prepare for a photo shoot, this is the man I call, Harold Flanagan of New York Faces, Smithtown-NY 631.366.0428. His one of a kind skin care treatment plans, are different for every client. Harold, finds the perfect products, to repair and heal trouble skin. Call today for an appointment, allow a few weeks for your first visit.
