La Dolce Vita

The historic town of Ravello on Italy's Amalfi Coast made a romantic setting for Beverley's dream wedding to accountant Michael Cameron. The couple, both 27, dated for five years before getting engaged on New Year's Eve in 2005. "They are a really good fit for each other," says an insider.

Mr. & Mrs.

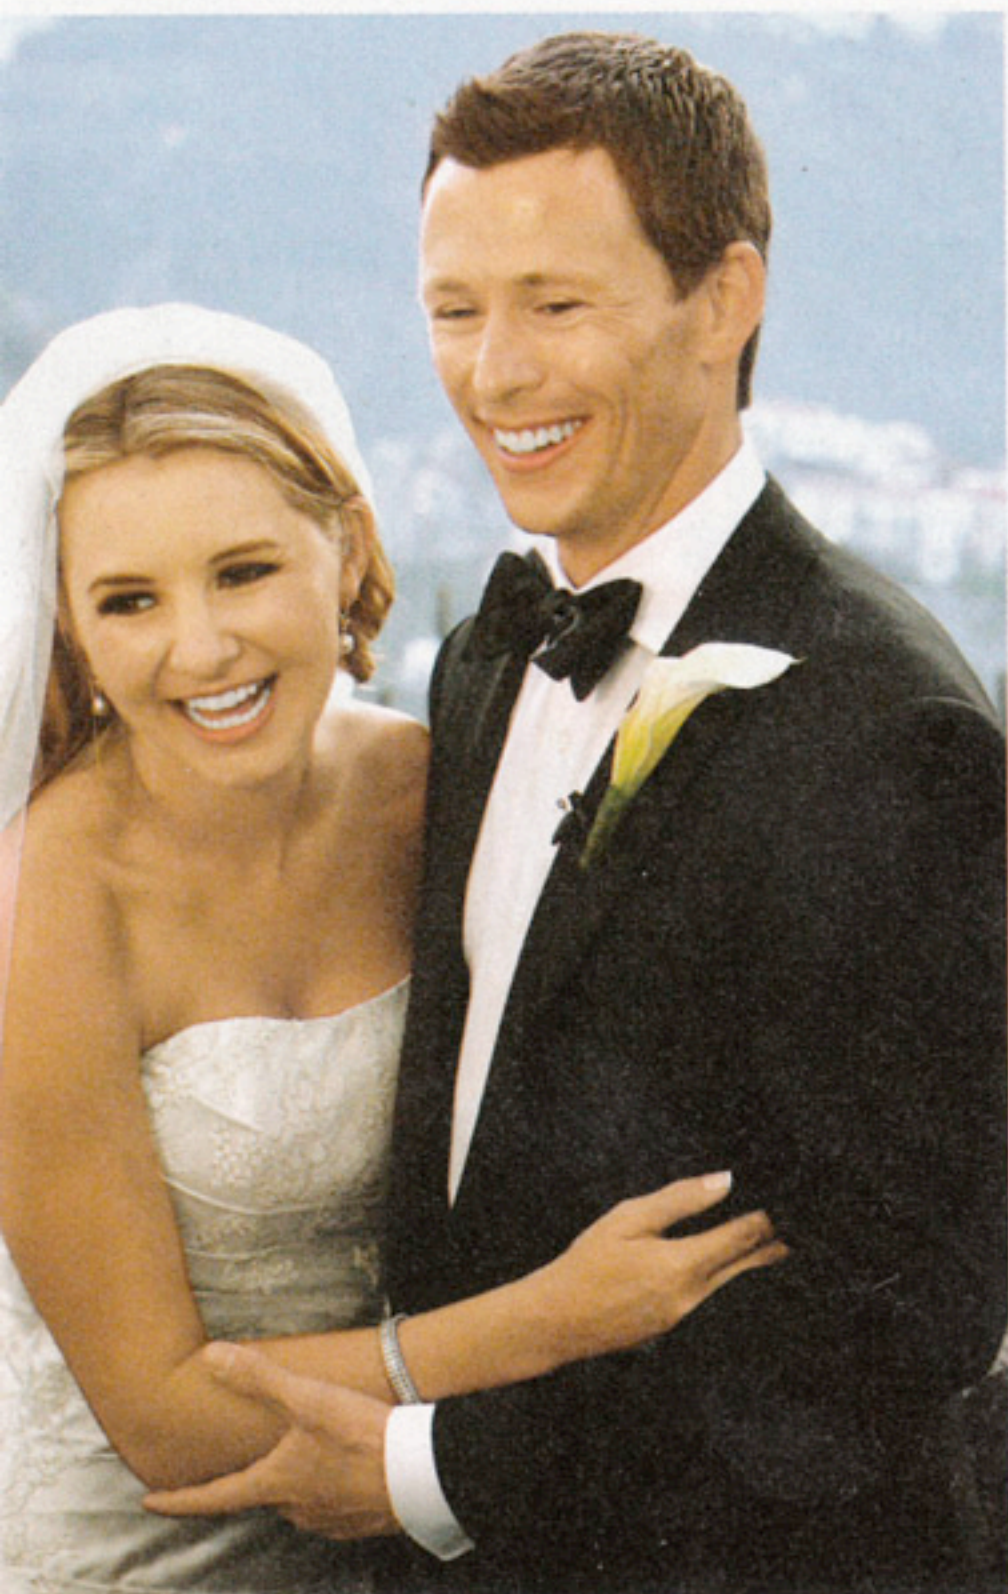

"He's a normal person," says Beverley about her handsome new hubby. The bride looked stunning in a satin and lace wedding gown by Melissa Sweet, while the groom was dapper in a tux by Kenneth Cole with a calla lily pinned to his lapel.

Bride & Joy

7th Heaven's Beverley Mitchell tied the knot in Italy on Oct. 1 with BFF and former costar Jessica Biel and beau Justin Timberlake by her side!

Seeing Sparks

After the ceremony, Beverley changed into a short ruffled frock and comfy sandals as the wedding party of 100 let loose with sparklers while dancing in Ravello's central square.

Picture Perfect

It's easy to picture these two walking down the aisle some day! Looking gorgeous in a burgundy bridesmaid's gown, Jessica Biel and Justin Timberlake capped off their romantic Italian getaway with the wedding celebration.

Heavenly Reunion

Beverley has said the 7th Heaven cast was like her second family — and clearly she and her small-screen sisters are still close! In addition to Jessica (above right), who played big sister Mary, Bev tapped little sis Ruthie (a.k.a. Mackenzie Rosman, to the left of Jessica) to serve as two of her seven bridesmaids.
