WITH DOUG WILSON

HOLIDAY DECORATING TIPS

Celebrity designer Doug Wilson of Moving Up weighs in:

"For an elegant look, work with a few colors that match your space. Don't just do holiday stuff — add velvet pillows and candles."

FILLED WITH LOVE

"If it were up to me, I'd be hanging stockings in every color, but this is more sophisticated and I love it," Joey, 30, tells In Touch. "Last year, I did all my shopping online, but at the last minute, I ended up at the mall anyway. I'm sure the same thing will happen this year."

At home with Joey Fratone

There may not be snow for Christmas in Orlando, Fla., but Joey Fatone's house is now the perfect place for the holidays. Thanks to event planners to the stars, rosesandlollypops.com, The Singing Bee host Joey, his wife, Kelly, and their daughter, Brianna, 6, get to celebrate the holidays just how they love them — in winter wonderland style.

Spending Christmas at his house in Florida is a family tradition for the former 'NSyncer and host of NBC's The Singing Bee

QUICK DESIGN TIP

Celebrity designer
Doug Wilson of Moving Up weighs in:

"Decorating a tree goes faster when you place the lights top to bottom rather than wrapping
them horizontally.
Adding a new set of drapes near the tree sets a tone."

THERE'S ROOM FOR EVERYONE

"On Christmas Eve, our friends and family come over and we have a giant smorgasbord of about 8 million different things," Joey says. "It's amazing! I like to cook, but Kelly is so talented — and the best part is that she still puts up with me!"

LOOK WHO'S BAKING IN THE KITCHEN!

"We always make cookies," says Joey, "and Brianna and I love eating the dough. This year, we're baking chocolate chip cookies."
