

Her Rivini ball gown "was the first dress I put on," she says.

Only in Us!

JEREMY & JEDEDIAH

➔ When it came to planning their February 17 nuptials, The View alum Jedediah Bila and Jeremy Scher were on the same page. "He works in publishing and I love to write," she told Us of exchanging self-penned vows in the library at Huntington, New York's Oheka Castle. "We walked in and both fell in love." Their shared tastes extended to the reception, where their 60 guests danced to '50s and '80s tunes in a ballroom decked in ivory blooms from Pedestals Florist. Notes Bila, 39, "We had a very similar vision."

The TV host (braving the snow) says she felt like Cinderella.

Planner Michael Russo created an ivory and gold aesthetic.

She changed into a custom frock from the Wedding Salon of Manhasset.

Bila gushed that her chocolate and vanilla cake "was gorgeous."